WIDE DIVERGENCE IN RACES

People of Pacific Islands Furnish Something of a Study for the Ethnologist.

The presence of two distinct races of man in the Pacific islands suggests two periods and sources of immigration, says a bulletin of the National Geographic society. The Papuans and Polynesians appear to show the widest divergences, with the Micronesians occupying the intermediate ground and possessing affinities of race, language, and custom with the other two.

The Papuans may be generally said to inhabit New Guinea, the Solomons, New Caledonia and Fiji. They are irreligious, democratic, quarrelsome, cannibalistic, and hostile to strangers. They paint their bodies rather than wear clothes, cook in earthen pots, and their speech consists of a number of broken dialects. The Polynesians differ widely from the Papuans. They possess an elaborate religious system, an established order of hereditary chiefs and well-defined social castes. They are fond of dress, are friendly to strangers, are good seamen and navigators, and tattoo instead of scar their bodies, and seldom practice cannibalism. They also possess a common language, understandable throughout New Zealand, Hawaii, Samoa, Tahiti and the Paumotu islands.

SET THEIR MINDS AT EASE

Cases Are Numerous Where Wrongs, After Many Years, Make Restitution to Show Regret.

The sting of conscience is not always dulled by the lapse of time. There is no more bitter penalty than to spend one's life with an accusing conscience, no more unpleasant memory than of a wrong done. That is particularly true where it is in the power of the individual to repair the wrong, to show by restitution that regret is real.

Conscience money is frequently received by individuals and corporations. There may be times when payments come from individuals who are mentally afflicted, but in many cases where payments could be traced back they were made to ease an accusing conscience, to right a wrong of years ago. There are other individuals who do not use mystery, but who come out in the open and pay debts long since outlawed, many times forgotten. There are stories of these belated payments frequently printed, the last one coming from North Dakota, where a man paid a debt nearly thirty years old. He not only paid the debt, but he paid interest to date and cleaned the transaction up as a man ought to do.—Ohio State Journal.

Short Courses in Wife-Training.
"We want wives who know how to do things," say the young North Africans who fought in Europe. "Let us have girls from your hostel." And then they are disappointed because the missionaries cannot supply the demand. To satisfy the waiting list of soldiers the missions plan to open short courses in wife-training.—World Outlook.

Concerning Swanking.
"Swank" is bombastic behavior or talk accompanied by ostentatiousness of manner. A "swanker" is a pretentious person who strives to impress others that he is superior to others, or something different from what he really is. The word "swank" is not a modern term; it dates back to the early years of the last century and has been found in Thomas Bachelors' "Orthoepical Analysis of the English Language," as occurring in Bedfordshire dialect. The book was published in London in 1800.

NORTHWEST NOTES

Neighbors of Woodcraft for western Montana will hold their district annual meeting in Helena, Sept. 4 to 5.

Notwithstanding the exceedingly low prices of horses at present a man at Boulder recently paid $250 for one.

The strike of employees of the Nevada Northern railway has been called off and train service was resumed Sunday.

Digging whiskey stills out of hidden caves seems to keep a number of peace officers on the go to the western side of Montana.

Farmers in Dawson county, Mont., have a project on foot where it is proposed to irrigate 18,000 acres of farm land.

People in Anaconda, Mont., are boasting of the splendid agricultural exhibits Deed Lodge county will send to the state fair.

It is predicted that hide hunters will cause the disappearance of a lot of unbranded horses now running the ranges in Montana.

Farmers in the vicinity of Livingston, Mont., are said to be opposing the proposed extension of the Yellowstone park boundary lines.

While bathing with several companions in the Missouri river near the Carter-Highwood ferry, Fred Lane, a garage man of Carter, Mont., was drowned.

Battle Mountain, Nev., people are leveling and equipping a tract of land at that place to be placed at the disposal of cross-country flyers as a landing field.

An explosion of gas in the shaft of the Liverpool mine at Lamp Gulch, near Clancy, Mont., caused the death of Fred Hartman, a miner, and injuries to Henry Wrahn.

Sanitary surveys of the mines and mining camps of Utah are to be undertaken by co-operation between the state board of health and the United States bureau of mines.

With the forest fires in the western part of Montana lapping up the water in the creeks and streams it is said that fish in many of the old-time popular holes are imperiled.

A new course will be added to the curriculum of the Kennermer, Wyo., high school for the coming year, to be known as the "physical education and recreational" department.

Voters of Yellowstone county, Montana, at the September elections, will decide the questions of a $250,000 road bond issue and a $150,000 issue for the relief of drought stricken farmers.

That poultry can be easily and profitably raised in the Moapa valley, in Nevada, is demonstrated by the fact that baby ducks imported from Los Angeles last March are now laying eggs.

The outcome of the trial of the accused murderers of Marco Laus, whose body was found in the mouth of Parley's canyon, near Salt Lake City, on the night of August 3, may depend upon the imprint of a ring in an old glove.

It is possible that the irrigation project may be carried over the Fend Reille river to the land adjacent to Polson, Mont., on the west side of the river. It is claimed that there is some 3,000 acres there which could be brought under the present system.

Governor Bamberger of Utah, has instructed the attorney general to begin prosecutions against any combination, trust, corporation or individual who is hoarding foodstuffs, limiting production, controlling prices or otherwise contributing to the high cost of living.

Of four barrels of whiskey in the cellar of a house at Billings, discovered through a raid by the sheriff's office, Louis Maloney, a former Hysham saloon keeper, was able to identify one as his own property, stolen, he says, from the stock remaining to him after prohibition had become effective.

Lander Johnson, a wealthy sheep rancher, was shot and killed at his home near Elkhorn, Wyo. The only witness to the shooting was Andre Croig, a herder employed by Johnson. William McKinley, a trapper, employed as a herder for the Johnson-Yates outfit, is being held for the crime, after being captured by the Freeman county sheriff and posse.

W. H. Zindel, a Wyoming man, has an unique idea for the prevention of drought in Western Wyoming in future. Zindel got his idea from the great masses of ice which are formed by the spray at Niagara falls, and proposes to use the heavy winter flow of certain streams in the artificial formation of huge icebergs, so large that they will not melt until late in the summer, and then gradually as needed for irrigation.

Tonopah capitalists have made application to the commissioners of Esmeralda county for a franchise for the "Tonopah, Divide & Goldfield Railroad," to be an electric line from Tonopah to Goldfield.

Making Sure.

"I suppose you expect the historians to do you justice."
"My friend," said Senator Sorghum, "if I get sufficiently prominent to figure permanently in print, I'm not going to take my chances with any historian. I'm going to have a press agent."

Musical Comedy.

"Too many feet in this lyric of yours," "Huh?"
"My star says she can't dance to it," —Louisville Courier-Journal.

George Austin, aged 15, was instantly killed when the horse he was riding at the Austin & Sons sheep ranch, about forty miles north of Coalville, stumbled and threw him heavily. He was on his way to the ranch house after looking after some sheep when the mishap occurred.

Attorney General Shields has been instructed by Gov. Simon Bamberger to institute proceedings against any and all profiteers. Though Utah laws are adequate for prosecuting offenders, no special funds have been provided to pay the cost of prosecution.

COULD NOT SLEEP

Mr. Schleusner in Misery From Kidney Complaint. Doan's Gave Complete Relief.

"Heavy work brought on my kidney complaint," says Wm. Schleusner, 6408 Suburban Ave., Wellston, Mo. "One morning when shoeing a horse I was taken with a sudden pain in my back and fell flat on the floor. If I had been hit with a trip hammer, I couldn't have suffered more. I stayed in the house for five weeks and the pain was wearing the life out of me. At times, I couldn't get a wink of sleep because of the misery and I had to get up every few moments to pass the secretions that were highly colored, and terribly stinging. My bladder felt as though it were aflame. The pain brought stupor and a reeling sensation in my head; the torture of it cannot be described. If I got onto my feet I couldn't walk but felt dizzy and all in a flutter and everything would turn black. My head ached so it seemed as though my eyes were being dragged out. I started using Doan's Kidney Pills and I was soon rid of all the trouble."

GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER

In the good old summer time when fruits of all kinds are getting ripe and tempting, when cucumbers, radishes and vegetables fresh from the garden are too good to resist, when the festive picnic prevails and everybody overcasts and your stomach goes back on you, then is the time for "August Flower," the sovereign remedy for tired, overworked and disordered stomachs, a panacea for indigestion, fermentation of food, sour stomach, sick headache and constipation. It gently stimulates the liver, cleanses the intestines and alimentary canal, making life worth living. Sold everywhere. Adv.

No Way to Beat the Game.
There is no way to dodge the high cost of living.

Once we thought there was. It was a fine plan and we determined to try it out. Meat was too expensive. So we would quit eating meat.

Therefore we ordered cabbage and asparagus and spinach and beets. Immediately the price of vegetables went up.

We found you couldn't fool the food man. He has a sure system. The price is high on whatever you want to buy. You can switch from one dish to another as often as you choose, but the little old price tag will bent you to it.

Mammoth Cave Has Rival.
Workers in a mine at Matehuala, near San Luis Potosi, Mexico, have discovered a cave which is said to be one of the largest in the republic.

It is more than 300 feet below the level of the mine and is 15 feet in width.

Its length has never been estimated, but exploring parties expect to survey it carefully in the near future. One of the most fantastic of its many grotesque adornments is a sulphurous fountain, which pours out continuously a stream of blue water.

It promises to rival in magnificence Kentucky's famous Mammoth cave, when fully explored.

"Luck" is merely a sugar-coated name for mental laziness.

Pride has but two seasons—a forward spring and an early fall.

DUEL INDEFINITELY PUT OFF

How Wisconsin Congressman Turned Challenge to Deadly Combat Into Matter of Ridicule.

The story of the Potter-Pryor duel, the famous challenge of Civil war times whereby a Wisconsin congressman by ridicule put dueling in disrepute, recalled by the death of one of the participants, is told in interesting style in the June number of the Wisconsin Magazine of History, quarterly publication of the State Historical society.

Roger A. Pryor, the Virginia congressman who figured in the episode, died a few months ago in New York city. It was he upon whom John Fox Potter of East Troy, Walworth county, then representative of the First Congressional district of Wisconsin, during April, 1890, brought nation-wide ridicule in answer to a challenge to a duel. Congressman Potter offered to fight with bowie knives at a distance of four feet, but Pryor refused because they were "so demitition vulgar."

Most of Mr. Potter's bowie knives, including the one he purchased for the duel and others sent to him after the affair, are now on exhibit in the State Historical museum, Madison.

MARRIED IN BATHING SUITS

Ceremony Certainly Saved Bride and Groom Considerable Expense in Wedding Finery.

The funniest wedding I ever saw was when camping last summer, writes a correspondent of the Chicago Tribune. A girl friend and her father were there and she met a young man whom she grew fond of in a short time. One night he asked her father for her hand, but father objected because of the short acquaintance. The next morning the couple met and planned to elope, but somehow father "got wise," so this was spoiled. When swimming that afternoon they met again and the girl happened to mention that her father had gone to the village and would not return until evening. The boy said: "This is our time." A minister was on the shore and they went to him and asked to be married at once. The ceremony was performed on the beach, the couple attired in their bathing suits.

Exit Dish towels.
No more sticky plates and no more dishes dried on dish towels.

These are two of the things for which the Y. W. C. A. training schools for home assistants is standing. The school was started in answer to the demand for home assistants on the new domestic service plan which have come into the central branch employment bureau. Within the last six months 500 calls for home assistants have come in, and 170 have been successfully filled.

There should never be a sticky plate after the home assistant has finished the course," Miss Grace H. White, placement secretary, says. "The girls are taught how to make their own soda preparation for cleansing the icebox, the kitchen closets, etc., and how to clean a sink and a kitchen range so that it shines.

"Dishes are never dried with a dish towel, but always scalded and allowed to dry without a streak."

Golf Bugs.

His father had taken him out to the golf course. That evening he seemed to be ill-at-ease.

"Willie," said his mother, "what is the matter with you? I wish you'd stop scratching yourself."
"I don't know what's the matter, but I guess I must have got some of those golf bugs on me," was Willie's reply.

Fair Question.

"I see a Holstein bull just brought $100,000."

"By the pound?"

THE JOY OF MOTHERHOOD

Came to this Woman after Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to Restore Her Health

Ellensburg, Wash.—"After I was married I was not well for a long time and a good deal of the time was not able to go about. Our greatest desire was to have a child in our home and one day my husband came back from town with a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and wanted me to try it. It brought relief from my troubles."

I improved in health so I could do my housework; we now have a little one, all of which I owe to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. O. S. JOHNSON, R. No. 3, Ellensburg, Wash.

There are women everywhere who long for children in their homes yet are denied this happiness on account of some functional disorder which in most cases would readily yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Such women should not give up hope until they have given this wonderful medicine a trial, and for special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of 40 years experience is at your service.

Smiley—I hope you won't mind if I bring a couple of friends home to dinner tonight, my dear?
Mrs. Smiley—Oh, no; that is better than being brought home by a couple of friends after dinner.

Agreed With the Doctor.
Mr. Griffin had spent an anxious afternoon at the office and hurried home at an unusually early hour.
"How do you feel, dear? What did the doctor say?" he asked his wife.
"Oh, he asked me to put out my tongue," she murmured.
"Yes?"
"And after looking at it he said: 'Overworked!'"
Mr. Griffin heaved an audible sigh of relief.
"I have perfect faith in that doctor," he said firmly. "You will have to give it a rest."

One Drawback.
Washington is a colored man and he follows the profession of cleaning up back yards. Also he was the first man to think of wrapping a horse's forelegs with fly paper, keeping the flies off their legs and catching Mr. Fly at the same time.

One of the women he was working for said to him: "Washington, your fly-paper is a success. I see that by the great number of flies there are on the paper."
"Yes! Yes!" said Washington, "but once in a while that horse gets his legs too close together and they stick, and I has to pull 'em apart for him."
